Castaldi Wins Sweet Victory

by Elaine Skolnik

In a surprise and stunning victory, Greenbelt Mayor Richard Castaldi trounced his opponents and captured the Democratic nomination for the Fourth Councilmanic District seat. A win for Castaldi was considered almost impossible because the recently adopted redistricting plan placed Greenbelt with its 17,000 residents in the same district as Bowie, population about 34,000. In November Castaldi will face Republican Kenneth Powell in the general election.

An elated Castaldi told the News Review "It was a community victory which extended from Greenbelt through the Lanham-Seabrook-Glenn Dale area and on to Bowie. I shall do my best to justify the confidence shown in me and work hard to unite the entire district."

Castaldi swept Greenbelt, taking 79% of the Democratic vote. District-wide he received 41% and chalked up impressive tallies in nearby precincts in Berwyn and Lanham (see charts). The key to his victory was the bigger voter turnout in Greenbelt and its environs than in Bowie. In these areas Castaldi and his supporters concentrated their efforts. Targeted also was Bowie's Pointer Ridge area.

Among the Democratic Central Committee candidates for the 23rd District, Councilman Thomas X. White copped top vote with 1,184 and incumbent Jeanette Gordy came in second with 725 in Greenbelt. Districtwide they were first and second respectively. Greenbelt Patrick Needham lost to member Joanne O'Brien in the at-large race, 530 votes to 881 in Greenbelt.

Delegates

Greenbelt voters split fairly evenly among the four candidates for Delegate. High vote went to Joan Pitkin, followed by Gerard Devlin, James Hubbard and Charles Ryan in that order. Districtwide the winners were Pitkin, Devlin and Ryan, who will be challenged in November by Republicans.

There were no surprises in either party's governor races. The Democratic team of Harry Hughes and J. Joseph Curran, Jr. will oppose Republicans Robert A. Pascal and Newton I. Steers, Jr. in November.

Incumbent Democrats Paul Sar-banes and Steny Hoyer crushed their opponents. Sarbanes will engage in battle with Republican county executive Lawrence Hogan for the United States Senate seat while Hoyer duels with Republican William P. Guthrie for the congressional slot.

Parris Glendening had no trouble winning the Democratic bid for county executive. He will be in a face-off with Republican Ann Shoch.

Because many offices were uncontested in the Republican primary, the turnout was light. In Greenbelt only 30% of the eligible voters cast votes (see charts on page 8.).

Utopia Features Musical Programs

The Arts Center will present two musical programs this weekend at the Utopia Theatre. Friday evening will feature the "Rainbow Troupe," directed by Jerry Payne and consisting of a cast of 16 including John Mancuso, who recently directed the production of "Bye Bye Birdie" at the Utopia. The Friday evening performance will include songs and dances from "Oliver," "Carnival," "Bye Bye Birdie," "Godspell," "Fiddler on the Roof," and "Annie." Additionally, there will be a puppet show and a vaudeville show whose cast will consist of senior citizens.

Kaleidoscope will return to the stage on Saturday evening. The cabaret-style show, directed by Cliff Smith of Springhill Lake, presents a variety of tunes as some of the following tunes would suggest: from Broadway shows: "Tonight" and "Hey Look Me Over" and more recently from the mind and voice of Billy Joel, "Angry Young Man."

Both shows will begin at 8:15 p.m. Both shows feature talented artists of all ages and an uplifting set designed by Tom Schreiber.

Flea Market

The Arts Center wishes to remind residents that the next Flea Market will be held Saturday, September 28. For reservations, call Ann or Anthony Pisano at 474-7841.

Film Club

Finally, the Film Committee will be meeting to establish guidelines for a film club. As noted in previous issues of the News Review, film programs at the Kennedy Center and the Biograph are greatly assisted through its film clubs members' subscriptions. The series, which will feature well-known artists such as Henry Fonda, Peter Sellers, Alfred Hitchcock and Woody Allen, will similarly become a reality with support from its community. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Film Committee

FIRE AT GHI

Fire badly damaged the main hallway in the Greenbelt Homes, Inc. administration building early Wednesday morning. While the fire did not spread beyond office doorways, the collection of photographs of past boards was destroyed. Cause of the fire is unknown, it is thought to have started in a ceiling light fixture. While telephone service was interrupted Wednesday, all but a few phones were working by Thursday noon.

County Acts to Transfer North End School to City

County Executive Lawrence J. Hogan on September 7 transmitted to the county council a resolution which would authorize him to transfer the closed Greenbelt North End Elementary School to the City of Greenbelt.

"The city has developed plans for use of this property and obviously I am gratified that, through this transfer, we will achieve a future use that is compatible with the community and which will fulfill the city's needs," Hogan said.

Greenbelt's Mayor Richard Castaldi and the city council submitted to Hogan a request for transfer of the school to the city earlier this year. "I am most grateful that the County Executive has agreed to the transfer of the building to the city at a nominal cost," Castaldi told county officials, adding that possession of the property by the city would enable it to carry out its plan for accommodating certain recreational and community services at the school.

As provided in the resolution Hogan forwarded to the county council, the property's transfer to the city will be contingent on release of the school by U.S. District Court in Baltimore, which is expected to render a decision soon in the NAACP busing suit. It also will be contingent on approval by the State Interagency Committee on School Construction and the State Board of Public Works, which is customary in all transfers of closed schools.

City's 45th Anniversary To Begin With Dance

A gala 45th Anniversary dance is being planned for Friday, October 1, in the Greenbelt Center School Gym beginning at 7:30 p.m. With the theme, "It Was Only Yesterday," the dance will feature the music of Glenn Miller, Benny Goodman, the Dorsey brothers and other bands of the 30's and 40's. People are encouraged to come dressed in 30's and 40's attire. (Word has it that someone is coming in an old car.)

The planning committee is busily sending out invitations to the first settlers and/or pioneers plus figuring out entertainment reminiscent of the 30's and 40's.

Returning Greenbelters can look forward to a singalong, dance contests, identifying old photographs, visiting neighbors in the original "blocks" where they lived, photo booth (have pictures taken with old friends), special live music (banjo, etc.), plus much, much more.

Prizes will be given in many categories such as person coming the longest distance, longest marriage, oldest child born in Greenbelt, etc.

Although first families are being invited by special invitation all other Greenbelters and friends are invited to attend. However, the gym is limited as to capacity.

The Greenbelt Lions and Lion Belles are spearheading the plans.

Jaycees Provide "Big Brothers"

by Richard Macey

The Greenbelt Jaycees have initiated a Big Brothers Community Action Project. Spearheading a statewide drive to get Jaycee chapters to implement a Big Brothers project is Greenbelt Jaycee Jeff Keir, the Maryland Program Manager. The Big Brothers organization is a nationwide movement established more than 75 years ago. The purpose of the program is based on the premise that a boy needs the positive influence of a mature, responsible and responsive adult male. The Big Brothers service is designed to meet the needs of such boys in one to one supportive relationships.

Following this lead, Greenbelt Jaycees are planning and sponsoring a series of group activities. September 25 is the "kick-off" day. That Saturday afternoon, dubbed "Sports Day," will bring actual and potential participants in the program to the Jaycee Clubhouse behind St. Hugh's School, near Braden Field. Other group activities are being planned, but volunteers are needed. If interested in participating or donating services to the Greenbelt Jaycee Big Brother program, contact Jeff Keir at 552-9234; Jerry Garfinkel, President of the Greenbelt Jaycees at 441-2286; or Bill Brune, Greenbelt Jaycees State Director at 292-3341.

League of Women Voters Holds October Meetings

The League of Women Voters will present "Ballot Issues" at local unit meetings on October 13 and 14. Members of the League's speakers Bureau will lead a discussion of the State and local questions voters will face on the November ballot. (See ad on page 5 for times and places.)

A Forum on TRIM vs. TRIM Plus Four will be the topic for the general meeting October 20 at 8 p.m. at Rennie's Forum, Prince Georges Community College. William Flahive, a proponent of the TRIM Plus Four proposal, and Jack Gleason, a supporter of TRIM, will be questioned by the press. A League member will moderate the forum.

The picnic is free to members, who are asked to bring homemade dishes of their choice. Hot dogs, hamburgers and beverages will be provided. Members wishing to attend must sign up by calling their Club Captain. Members wishing to bring a guest must notify their captain and a fee for each guest will be charged. The captains are Jerry Hart, 345-1681, Al Michaels, 345-8594, Jerry Singletary, 459-1958, and Lillian Brittner, 345-2684.

Gray Panthers Focus On Social Security

The newly organized Gray Panthers of Prince Georges County will present its second workshop on Social Security on Wednesday September 22, 7:30 - 9 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library. Richard Lehman, who handles social security legislation for the House Select Committee on Aging, will talk and answer questions. He will cover new cuts, changes, limitations and the future of the Social Security system. Legislation may come up before the next Congress calling for reductions or delays in the cost of living adjustment, additional cuts in Medicare benefits, and raising of the retirement age.

In addition to working to insure a solid Social Security system for the future, the Gray Panthers, an organization of both old and young, works against ageism. This is discrimination by age and is as pervasive as racism and sexism. Other Gray Panther priorities for the year are unemployment, housing, and health care.

For additional information telephone 474-6890.

Margaret Baldwin

A long-time Greenbelt resident, Margaret Dean (Peg) Baldwin, died of cancer on September 8 after a long illness. A native of Plymouth, Mass., Mrs. Baldwin moved to Greenbelt in 1945, where she became active in church and community affairs. A member of St. Hugh's Catholic Church, she served as Prefect of the Ladies Sodality, as a member of the Ladies of Charity, and was a member of the Retreat Committee. She also served in wider Catholic circles as a member of the Washington Archdiocese Council of Catholic Women and its Sodality Union.

Mrs. Baldwin had worked for the federal government in Boston before coming to this area. After coming to Washington she held a position as correspondence clerk for the Treasury Department until her retirement in the mid-1960's. She remained active in Democratic circles as a member of the Eleanor and Franklin Roosevelt Democratic Club and as chief election judge at the North End precinct, where she was noted for the efficiency and careful attention to regulations with which the elections were conducted. She was also a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad.

Her late husband, John A. Baldwin, died in the early 1940's. Survivors include her daughter, Judy Boone of Greenbelt, three grandchildren, and two brothers, Walter R. (Bud) Dean of Leesburg, Florida, formerly of Greenbelt, and Paul F. Dean, Sr. of Silver Spring.

Funeral services were held at St. Hugh's Church on September 11, with burial following at Washington National Cemetery, Suitland.

Memorial contributions may be sent to St. Hugh's Ladies of Charity.

IN MEMORIAM

On September 8, 1982, Greenbelt Ladies Auxiliary lost a devoted member, Peg Baldwin. Peg was an active member who never missed a monthly meeting, County or State convention. There were a few exceptions, when she was hospitalized. When Peg was not in the hospital, there sat the Auxiliary's "Rock of Gibraltar"—always dependable, vocal and sharing her ideas and views.

Peg became a Greenbelt Ladies Auxiliary member in 1956. During her membership, she served as treasurer, membership, sunshine and bylaws chairman and served her Auxiliary well with much enthusiasm. Peg was bestowed the honor of life member in 1976.

Peg was a "real trouper." She fulfilled her duties with the utmost integrity. Peg was a true inspiration to her members, always showing courage, determination and "spunk."

Peg will be greatly missed. Her contributions will always be remembered. The Auxiliary will always be thankful for having Peg Baldwin as a member, co-worker, and most of all, a great friend.

A new Brownie troop is forming in Greenbelt. This troop will be primarily open to first graders, but some places will be set aside for second and third graders who have been unable to get into existing troops which are full. Parents who wish their daughter to join should consider carefully whether they are willing to undertake responsibility for assisting the troop in some function since this will be a requirement.

There will be a preliminary meeting for parents within ten days. Call Cathie Meetre, 474-0490 to get your daughter's name included.

"Kaleidoscope" Opens In Greenbelt Recreation Review

by Rema Boscov

Cliff Smith has put together a darn good musical revue. But hardly anybody knows it.

Some top-notch talents opened their throats, kicked up their heels and made a few people laugh, love and feel last weekend at the Greenbelt Cultural Arts Center. Only a few.

"Kaleidoscope," Smith's creation, smacks of professionalism. Among the performers there are some superb voices attached to bodies which really know how to dance. This revue was put together quickly, making use of the vocal styles and talents that became available to Smith after the company had been selected, and the hand tailored quality is obvious.

To suit the talents available to him, Smith had to change his original idea—a presentation of the evolution of the blues. When he realized his company didn't have enough singers in the right style, he convinced musical director Sally Hershey that they could "take the talent we have and make a revue of it."

"I pulled out some songs I liked and some they liked," Smith says. The disadvantage to this method is that continuity may suffer. "I wanted very much to have something that flowed," Smith says.

Surprisingly, it does.

Dividing his potpourri into two sections, songs with a country theme and those with an urban flavor, Smith gives us humor, pathos, aspirations, disappointments, wit. The songs and dance routines are not always obviously connected. But the comfortable flow from one to the next somehow survives.

Choreographers Rita Criggar, Jill Kaufman and Porter Koontz have come up with some lively and stylistically appropriate dance numbers guaranteed not to bore you. Even the costumes are fun to look at.

Using individual abilities to best advantage creates not just a quality production but piques audience interest so that what could have been a mere medley of tunes becomes a parade of personalities as well. Betty Xander's marvelous ability to mimic and spoof balances well with the sparkling strong voices of Porter Koontz and Michelle Rios, who together do a sensitive rendition of "Tonight" and individually lend their intensities to some powerful numbers.

Ken Jackson's witty presentations leave the audience hoping he'll come back to do more. Rita Criggar and Helene Davis, superbly versatile in their abilities to sing and dance, will make you smile with pleasure. Not everyone in the company has professional flair, but so many do that this should be hailed as a delightful moment for the Greenbelt stage.

Sally Hershey's nimble fingers on the keyboard and the "just right" lighting truly set the stage for an evening of good entertainment.

Smith, an old hand at directing ("Grease," "Cabaret," "Equus" and many other shows) was hospitalized during the last week of preparation when rehearsals were most intense. Koontz, Assistant Director, took over and enriched the show with his input.

Would Smith like to create another revue? "I would love to," he says, "but not in Greenbelt. There are so few people in the audience." It is "demoralizing" for the performers, he explains, to open to a nearly empty house.

Looking for some good entertainment? "Kaleidoscope" will be playing Sept. 18, 24, 25 and 26.

Winners and Losers In Greenbelt Soccer

Greenbelt Soccer began its Fall 1982 season last weekend for both County and Interleague teams. There was a contest between two Greenbelt six year old Interleague teams, and Greenbelt 2 beat Greenbelt 1 in a 2-1 game. Both goals scored by Greenbelt 2 were made by Mike Davis; Steven Klem made the goal for Greenbelt 1.

The 8 year old County team beat Hyattsville 4-1, in a great passing game. One goal was scored by Kerry Sweeney, one by James Hardy, and two by Chris Davis. The newly formed 8 year old Interleague team was beaten by a County-level Beltsville team 10-0. But the 10 year old Interleague team beat Beltsville 1-0. The goal was scored by Joey Katsouras.

The 9 year old County team suffered a 4-1 defeat to Allentown; Larry Trimble scored their only goal. The 10 year old County team held their own for a while against a tough South Bowie team at Black Sox Field, but lost

2-1. A goal that would have tied the game, made by Chuck Lorenzetti, was called back on a controversial judgment call. The one goal was scored by Joel Cahalan.

The last game was the 13 year old County team, playing against a tight Camp Springs squad which won 5-2. The two goals were scored by Scott Swahl.

There are more tough games scheduled for Braden Field on Sept. 19. The 9 year olds play South Bowie at 2 and the 10 year olds play College Park at 3:15. Come on out and cheer on the Greenbelt Soccer Players!!

Carol Pelosi: Crossbow Advocate, World Champion, Humanitarian

by Richard Macey

In March of 1973, an intrigued Greenbelt resident observed people brandishing bows and arrows going to and from the Greenbelt Sports Center. Gilbert Frey, crossbow enthusiast extraordinaire, saw the young civil service employee and in a rare twist of fate held out his crossbow and said "Here, let's see you try this."

Carol Pelosi did, and with Frey at the helm she has won award after award, breaking one record after another while storming the ranks of crossbows to become the most dominant figure the sport has ever known, William Tell aside.

Carol is a seven year resident of Greenbriar. She currently serves as vice president of the Bowie S.P.C.A. and newsletter editor. Talk to Carol Pelosi and she would rather talk about humane treatment for animals than her incredible odyssey which crowns her queen of the crossbowing elite. Long overdue, her recognition for both achievements remains dulled, even today.

In the past, Carol appeared on "To Tell the Truth." Although she didn't stump Kitty Carlisle, the nation glimpsed her remarkable marksmanship. So consistent has she been, that "That's Incredible" TV show asked Carol to reproduce the age old adage of William Tell and impale an apple from atop someone's head. Carol personifies her refusal of national fame, explaining that at various shows and exhibitions a volunteer is asked to brave such a feat. Sure enough someone "always volunteers." Carol insists, though, on one practice shot using "a dummy." Instantly the arrow soars, imbedding "right between the eyes." "That usually brings them around," Carol quips.

Carol Pelosi demands respect for her sport in more positive ways. Representing the United States in the first World Crossbow Championship held on July 3 in Mikbeli, Finland, she convincingly took home the Women's World Crossbow championship. Four days later she won an International tournament at Harnsand, Sweden. Prior to these competitions she has won a staggering total of seventeen national titles, sixteen consecutively. She set new records in the Quadruple International Round competitions held with the nationals in August, 1978. She has to her credit five successful efforts in the special six arrow King and Queen competition held each year at the N.A.A. Nationals. She is the only person, man or woman, to shoot a perfect bullseye in international finals competition. The list seems endless, yet in the Carol Pelosi story, it is only the beginning.

The Crossbow

For those not familiar with the crossbow, it was the type used by William Tell to shoot an apple from his son's head. The bow parts are mounted on a wood stock which is likened to a large rifle stock. The bow is aimed like a rifle at ten ring targets up to 71 yards away.

Carol takes a unique, relaxed approach despite the tension usually bred by the requirement of pinpoint accuracy. It is her opinion that the results she achieves are simply not important. She enjoys the sport, and the excitement that surrounds national and international competition. Unlike many world champions, Carol is friendly and easy to approach.

S.P.C.A.

Like a true champion with a cause, she fights for the rights of animals. If anyone could put the word humane back in humanity, with her dedication and modesty, Carol Pelosi could. She tirelessly edits edition after edi-letter "Heads and Tails," enlightening darkened attitudes, hoping to bring relative justice and interest to a closet subject. She organizes demonstrations and affirmative action meetings, matching in public the spirit she compels in private.

Her S.P.C.A. Chapter is sponsoring a recipe drive and Carol heartily welcomes favorite recipes of all types. Vegetarian recipes are preferred "to introduce people to the world of meatless dishes." You can send your favorite recipes to: Carol Pelosi, 7706 Hanover Parkway No. 103, Greenbelt, MD 20770. The recipes will compromise a cookbook to be published by the Bowie S.P.C.A., and the proceeds will go for efforts on behalf of abused and neglected animals. If enough vegetarian recipes are collected, a separate vegetarian cookbook will be published later.

"The whole area of public education, particularly education of the young in . . . overpopulation of animals and the proper care of animals, is one in which our society is doing little." To Carol, the most immediate concern in

Best wishes to Mrs. Frances Stouffer on her 90th birthday. Mrs. Stouffer was the city's Public Health Nurse from 1941 until her retirement in 1952.

On August 28 the Thompsons of Greendale Place, residents of Greenbelt for 39 years, were treated to a surprise Golden Anniversary party, hosted by daughter Shirley Thompson Dorkis, son Doug, and Mrs. Thompson's sister, Ruby Keeney. Guests were from Ohio, Florida, Virginia, and Pennsylvania, as well as long-time Greenbelters. Guests were treated to a formal dinner in the Chesapeake Room of the University of Maryland, after which socializing abounded as friends and relatives caught up on old times. Highlights of the evening for the Thompsons were many gifts, a Presidential 50th Anniversary letter, a Papal Blessing from Rome, and best wishes from all attending.

her life is to " . . . find volunteers to provide the leadership" necessary to make humane treatment of animals second nature. The nature, by the way, of a world champion.

Second Lt. Joseph P. Lepanto, son of Peter J. and Veronica M. Lepanto of Springhill Court, has graduated from U.S. Air Force pilot training and has received silver wings at Columbus Air Force Base, Mississippi. He will be stationed at Blytheville AFB, Arkansas.

Senior Citizen Consumer

by Harvey Geller

When I first reached senior citizen status, I spent quite a bit of time investigating what programs and other benefits would now be available to me. I was surprised to find that most of my fellow senior citizens do not know of the various programs or benefits I have discovered. This, then, is the first in the series of articles in which I will attempt to enlighten our readers.

A "Senior Citizen Identity Card" is available for those over age 60 from the Prince Georges Department of Services and Programs for the Aged. With this free card comes a list of stores and other services that give discounts to card holders. In addition, the card identifies you as a SC even if you look a lot younger. Call 356-6666 for more information and an application blank. For a payment of $2.50 SC's will receive a monthly newspaper "Senior Citizen," which lists events for SC's and activities in which they can participate. The County also uses this newspaper to update the discount list.

Movie Discounts

Some movie theaters provide discounts to SC's even though there may be no sign at the box office. Call and ask if a particular theatre does give an SC discount. It is surprising the number that do. In addition, by asking we are raising the question as to whether they should. Some of the theaters that do offer discounts are: Showcase Beltway, College Park and the Hoff in the University of Maryland Student Union.

Half-price for certain events at the Tawes Theater, at the University of Maryland and at the Kennedy Center are available. Buy the tickets at the box office and show proof of SC status. Before traveling to the box office, call ahead to make sure that they give discounts for the event in which you are interested and that there are tickets available.

Please write to me c/o this newspaper or call me at 474-6323, if you have SC information to share. I will keep a file and use the information in future columns. Also, if you need information or you are having a problem that is peculiar to your status as an SC, call me at the above number. I would like to help.

In future articles, I plan to discuss such programs as the Golden ID program at the University of Maryland and the PG Community College, Elderhostel, senior olympics and others. Again, if you know of an SC program or if you want information about a program, call me.

CROSS-COUNTRY OPENS

of the first CYO cross-country meet in the area on Sunday, September 19, at 10 a.m. at the bandstand. Although this is a CYO meet, all children up through 15 years may run in distances varying from 1.22 miles for 8 and under through 3.1 miles for 15 year olds. There will be six meets in the general area. Boys run against boys and girls against girls. Most races are Sunday mornings with two on Saturdays. Further information from Larry Noel, 474-9362. There is a small fee for entry.

Crime Prevention Comm.

The Greenbelt Crime Prevention Committee will hold its next regular meeting on Tuesday, September 21, at 8 p.m. in the City Council Meeting Room. On the agenda will be reports from the implementation, the public relations, and the agenda subcommittees, as well as reports from liaison members with the city council, the Police Dept., the Community Relations Advisory Board and the Fraternal Order of Police.

New items to be discussed include Research Rd. area targeting, the Court Parent program and membership activities.

Police Blotter

Compiled by Mavis Fletcher

Sgt. Kenneth L. Stair arrested a man whom he had seen looking into an apartment window at Springhill Lake and charged him with trespassing by Peeping Tom.

Two other Peeping Tom incidents took place about 3:30 a.m. on Sept. 12 on Breezewood Terrace and Edmonston Terrace. Both incidents apparently involved the same individual.

A breaking and entering occurred on Sept. 11 in the 6100 block of Springhill Terrace. Entry was made through a partially opened patio door. The occupants of the apartment awoke and the suspect fled.

A gray 1981 Ford F100 truck, Md. registration M31019, was stolen from Springhill Court on Sept. 12.

A pocketbook snatch occurred during daylight hours inside the mall at Beltway Plaza.

Several shoplifting arrests were made during the week in the Greenway Shopping Center and the Beltway Plaza.

On Sept. 11 and 12 a series of indecent exposure cases took place in the city. The incidents occurred on Southway, Edmonston Terrace, Springhill Drive, Breezewood Terrace and Greenbelt Road.

A suspect was arrested on a forgery charge when he attempted to cash an altered money order at a local bank.

For the next 14 weeks Greenbelt police officers will be distributing Washington Redskins Football cards which have crime prevention tips on the back. The program is sponsored by P.A.C.T. (Police and Citizens Together), the Redskins and the Frito-Lay Co. P.A.C.T. is a metropolitan area-wide crime prevention association. Interested residents, particularly youths, are invited to ask any Greenbelt police officer they see for one of the cards.

GHI NOTES

GHI meetings next week include the regular rehab information meeting on Monday, September 20 from 5-6:30 p.m. and a Board of Directors meeting on September 23 at 8 p.m. On September 23, the Board will make final decisions on whether or not to keep the solar system at 14 court Ridge and 2 court Southway.

GHI is making plans to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of President Franklin Roosevelt and the 45th anniversary of the founding of Greenbelt. As part of the city-wide celebration, GHI is sponsoring a reception for Greenbelt pioneers. Anyone who is an original occupant of the first Greenbelt homes, the masonry homes, may call 474-6682 for information. People should receive invitations by the end of the week.

An alligator, an azalea plant and an antique candleholder are some of the hidden treasure prizes decorating the Board Room. Anyone who won a prize at the GHI Labor Day booth can check with Dennis Lewis (474-5566) about collecting the prize. GHI thanks all the people who assisted with the GHI booth and float.

Rehab Bulletin No. 7 was distributed last weekend. The bulletin has schedules and reports on other rehab work such as windows, insulation, roofs, water mains and vinyl siding. Anyone who did not receive a bulletin can pick up one in the GHI reception area.

Golden Age Club

by Blanche E. Lee

The next bus trip for Seniors will be October 13 to Woodland Plantation (near Mt. Vernon) which, as the story goes, was the wedding place of George Washington's foster daughter, Eleanor Parks Custis, and his nephew Major Lawrence Lewis. A seafood lunch is planned at the Old Town Restaurant at Seaport Inn. Call Zelpha Parsons, 345-3904, for seafood menu and other information.

Reservations are still available for the Caribbean Cruise on the luxury liner "World Renaissance" leaving October 2 for San Juan, Puerto Rico, and cruising seven islands in the Caribbean. Call the above number for details.

The Greenbelt Golden Age Club Float won 4th place in the Labor Day Festival and 14 members marched in the Parade.

Greenbelters Have
Misses Poppy Titles

Greenbelt Unit #136, American Legion Auxiliary, is proud of its Misses Poppy, Stefanie Lynn (age 7) and Tina Fisher (age 17), who have been selected as Department (State) Jr. and Sr. Miss Poppy respectively. Their selection was based on scrapbooks compiled by each showing their activities during their year as Greenbelt's finest. Included were pictures, newspaper articles, newspaper pictures and a write-up of the girls' hobbies.

In Stefanie's age division there is also a national contest into which she has been entered automatically as Maryland's choice for Best Miss Poppy.

Both Tina and Stefanie have promoted the Poppy Program and all American Legion Auxiliary programs during the 1981-1982 administrative year. They worked very hard and are looking forward to serving as Department Misses Poppy during 1982-1983.
